FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members of the Lynn Teachers Union:

Hello Everyone,

As we head into Spring, I am looking forward with a positive frame of mind to meet the challenges we have faced and are currently facing this school year. The negotiations teams and our members are feeling the pressure of working under an extended contract during this tumultuous school year. It is our hope to have a productive meeting on April 5th with the Lynn School Committee and LPS Administration in order to make some gains on our proposals. We will keep you informed in a timely manner.

Due to snow days, we will have June 20th as a paid holiday celebrating Juneteenth.

The Union is advocating for the postings to include the budget items for SY22-23. We feel that posting all the new positions will allow for our members to bid on the new openings and ensure that new employees own the positions when hired.

Sincerely,

Sheila J. O'Neil
