FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members of the Lynn Teachers Union:

Hello,

As we enter the summer months we continue to be overwhelmed with questions about the changes to education due to COVID 19. The question most prevalent in everyone's mind is what will school look like this fall?

We are working with the district to plan for the upcoming school year and to be prepared for all scenarios. We are also aware of our members and the varied states of their ability to return to school depending on health issues. We will be meeting with the Superintendent to address the needs of all of our members.

I urge you to take this time to try and relax and rejuvenate. We need to take care of ourselves in order to be well prepared for teaching and working with children this coming fall.

Enjoy your holiday!

Stay Safe!

Sincerely,

Sheila O'Neil
